

DISCOVER THE DIFFERENCE: 4 Reasons to Choose Suffolk

At Suffolk University's Sawyer Business School, we want to help you become a successful leader in business and public service. With an emphasis on practical experience, you will learn how to adapt to dynamic work environments, think with an eye toward innovation, and lead others. See for yourself why Suffolk University's Sawyer Business School is the ideal place to earn a graduate business degree.

In-Demand Degree Options

We offer high-demand graduate program and degree options for every business goal. Enjoy small, incredibly diverse classes taught by professors who bring their expertise and experience to the classroom from right here in Boston, across the country, and around the world.

National Recognition and Accreditation

Our accreditations from AACSB, NASPAA, and CAHME attest to our recognized excellence across business, public administration, and healthcare programs at the graduate level. For the fourth consecutive year, Suffolk University's Sawyer Business School has been named one of the Best Business Schools by The Princeton Review. In addition, the Business School was recognized in the 2022 Top 50 Online MBA ranked list. Plus, U.S. News & World Report named us on its 2023 Best National Universities list.

Superior Location

As the only university in downtown Boston, we provide unique access to the city's cultural and professional offerings. At the Sawyer Business School, you'll hear business leaders speak in your courses, consult with Boston-based clients, get career advice from professors who work in the industry, and build your professional network starting your very first day to add ample real-world experiences to your classroom setting. In addition, you will have easy access to internship and career opportunities at the State House, financial district, and major health centers.

Return on Investment

Our graduates have a 99% employment rate within one year of graduation as well as an 88% employment rate in a field relevant to their career goal. Graduates have gone on to work at organizations like Fidelity, ZipCar, EY, the Department of Labor & Standards, Massachusetts General Hospital, and State Street Global Advisors, to name a few.

Earn a graduate business degree with purpose and become an innovative change agent!

If Suffolk sounds like the right fit for you, submit your application today. You will enjoy a waived application fee (use code: RoadToSuffolk), no GRE/GMAT required for most programs (visit suffolk.edu/gradwaivers for full details), and a two-week admission decision. Plus, you will receive automatic scholarship consideration.

Questions about your graduate application? Give us a call at 617-573-8302 or send us an email at help@business.suffolk.edu.

SUFFOLK UNIVERSITY
SAWYER BUSINESS
SCHOOL